Chapter 1

*The Borg are coming. Nothing can stop that.
In this we have no choice.*

But we do have a choice in whether we are ready to meet them when they get here. The choice is a simple one. Either we wipe them out. Or they wipe us out.

I'm all for the former. The fighter aircraft I build will be the forerunners of the Vipers. We do not have much time to build them. We have a lot to do if we wish to survive.

BSG: Viper Tribute

I know how to build these.

I am the only one who has any hope of building them.

Each of them will be powered with the Impulse Drive Engine

Mark II.
