Chapter 1

A number of people around me were killed in order to try to gain leverage over me for my research

Those killed were innocents. Several children died. All were killed in order to put pressure on me. It was in order to try to gain leverage over me to try to secure more research. And to try to get me to back off when I threatened to expose them.

I am a healer by profession. Or at least I was until I had to shut down my practice. My injuries now are such that I can barely walk. Every day for the past five and a half years I spend about two hours in meditation and Chinese Medicine to help heal my injuries. Every day.

Without this work I would not be able to walk. I do not use acupuncture needles – I work directly with chi though the energy points of the body. For this I work in a state of meditation.

Every day I do this. Every day.

Chapter 2

*“Deliver the research or we will destroy you.”
This is what they said to me.*

They did not get it. My key research I keep only in my head. But they killed a number of people around me in the attempt to get it.

More than any other clip, if you want to get a sense of my life these past five and a half years, it is this one. This clip. This more than any other is the story of my life these past five and half years.
